
JURY IS SECURED

Trial of Benj. Manley for Alleged Murder Likely to Take About
Two Weeks.

Burr Oak, Nov. 23.—After finally selecting a jury in the Manley murder trial, the first witness was called to the stand yesterday afternoon. Cots have been moved into the court house, where the trial is being held, and it is expected the case will take about two weeks. One of the exhibits in the court room is the wagon, over which the controversy occurred which resulted in the murder of Richard Cheney by Benjamin Manley, at Mendon about three months ago.
