Mendon, March 30.—Frank Manley, owner of a large farm two and a half miles east of here shot and killed Richard Chainey, aged 68, of Mendon and attacked the latter's brother, James Chainoy, in a desperate battle in the farm house today. W. E. Marshall, Richard Chainey's son-in-law, who was engaged in the fight, escaped without injury.

Manley is being held by Sheriff Cupp at Centerville, and will be under the surveillance of the county officer until after the inquest Tuesday. James Chainey will recover from his injuries, it is believed.

Manley, who resides here, had gone to his farm to talk with a prospective tenant. Shortly after the latter had departed the Chainey brothers and Marshall arrived at the farm to inform Manley of certain possessions James Chainey had on the property. Manley disagreed, and an argument followed.

It is believed Manley was attacked and shot Chainey in self defense. All the men were armed with guns, knives and axes, and until Manley was able to procure a gun he had in the house a furious battle ensued. The shooting ended the fight.

The victim leaves a widow and two daughters.
